Notice regarding the Impact of Torrential Rain in Western Japan

A torrential rain disaster has caused significant damages to property and loss of life in western Japan in early July. Takara Leben Infrastructure Fund, Inc, (hereinafter referred as “Investment Corporation”) would like to express our deep sympathy and sincere condolences to all the victims and their families who were affected by the disaster.

As of 15:00 on July 9, 2018 (JST), there are no reports indicating any damages that significantly impact personal safety and smooth operation on Investment Corporation’s solar power plants (LS Mie Yokkaichi, LS Shirahama and LS Kirishima Kokubu) in Chubu, Kinki, and Kyushu region (Mie, Wakayama, and Kagoshima prefecture).

Investment Corporation will timely inform investors if any cases of damage likely to cause a significant impact on operation.

End.
